

K-LOVE is the only source of Christian music in my community. It would be a great loss if K-LOVE was replaced by other programming. There is so much other programming already available, and Christian alternatives in entertainment are very limited. We need clean, moral programming that sends a positive message of God's love to the community.